

About The Book

Excerpt From Augustine Okorie; Enugu State Director,
National Orientation Agency, NOA. 2007-2014

This book; Power Of Idea In A World Of Possibilities, is a positive contribution to the world-wide campaign on attitudinal change, self-reliance, talent hunt, creativity, human developments and empowerment. This has been domesticated across the 197 countries, that cut across the seven continents of the world, for the citizenry to see the positive aspects of life with the correct mindset.

This book under review, to me, is a catalyst that has the capacity to challenge every reader to re-assess oneself towards taking a positive path to greatness. It is like an observatory, a beacon of sorts with which life can be navigated with ease and with great success as the target.

Permit me to go through the cerebral comments of those individuals who have read and digested this book; It has been described in such wonderful and superlative terms, some of which are as follows, "Motivational therapy, positive influence, a recommended medicine for the mind, an insightful facts, an exposée that enables one to live inside and outside one's imagination, an idea worthy to be explored, a knowledge reservoir, brain, and mind booster, will ginger your swagger" and so on.

This book admonishes people to dream dreams and to pursue their dreams to a logical conclusion. To live their dreams and to do that in full, and to have inspiration and drive through knowledge.

This book has taught me that it is never too early nor too late to acquire talent or being creative through a conscious learning process, but the earlier the better. The award-winning poet, Joseph Obi Okonkwo, has for us in this no holds-bare-brainstorming discourse, a food for thought that could be suicidal to neglect. The storyline in this book, in its entirety, is a warning to those who treat the sacred gifts of destiny with levity.

I will, therefore, not only advise you to grab a copy of this book now that it's within reach; but plead that you present a copy to someone so dear to you. Through this act of love and magnanimity, you may be helping someone boost the idea immune system. See you at the top
