

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Deborah Akerele is a visionary leader and advocate for transformative change.

Through the Valoree Foundation, which she founded, Deborah has impacted numerous teenagers across various states, focusing on the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) 4 and 5 - Quality Education and Gender Equality.

She is a prolific author who has penned several influential books, spanning education and spirituality, which have touched lives and transformed mind.

Her work has garnered recognition from esteemed organizations, including African Climate Stories and the Akada Children's Book Festival, a pioneering event that celebrates children's literature in Nigeria.

With unwavering passion and dedication, Deborah continues to blaze trails, igniting hope and fostering a culture of empowerment, equality, and excellence.

OVERCOMING THE GRIP OF DRUG ADDICTION

ABOUT THE BOOK

Drug addiction is a growing concern, fueled by societal pressure, parenting styles, low self-esteem, and other underlying issues. If left unaddressed, addiction can have far-reaching consequences on individuals, families, and communities.

This book explores the root causes of addiction, its devastating effects, and offers insights into prevention, recovery, and healing.

It provides a comprehensive understanding of the complex issues surrounding addiction, and serves as a resource for those seeking help and support.

DEBORAH AKERELE

Edit with WPS Office