DEDICATION

To Fellow God Seekers

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To Jesus; I realize that what you have given me is a gift. I may never be worthy of it but I pray to be able to serve you with it... Lifting your name high to the nations as a scribe for you.

To Chiamaka; you may think that you are less, but in Jesus you are more.
As you helped in birthing this book, I pray we also birth the life-giving words God has put in you. Someday. Soon.

To "The Women At The Well"; you all make my heart sing. Thank you for being such a blessing in more ways than one.

INTRODUCTION

As a 22 year old starry eyed girl in Nigerian Law School, I had a lot of dreams.
I wanted to graduate with First class from Law School and be rushed by every top Law Firm in Lagos.
I wanted to serve in Lagos for my NYSC year and be retained by the firm I served at – to be paid a huge salary from which I would fund my dream of grooming young girls for the Lord.
I had a toaster then based in Port-Harcourt – a handsome guy my friends had nicknamed "red lips".
He seemed to really like me and in one of our night chats, he had teased me with being the mother of his babies. This seemed like "it" and if it was, It would have been my life being set "right on track by the Lord!". Talk about favour.

But then I stepped into Church on the 7th Day of August 2014 and experienced a shift that rocked my world from its foundations.

My Pastor, Nathaniel Bassey spoke on "The Will Of God".
The simple words "your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven" turned my entire world around.

My eyes were suddenly opened to the fact that God has a plan for my life and I didn't want to go around in circles focusing on my own man-made substandard plans.
And so when the call came to throw my own plans to the wind with the decision to ONLY follow God's plan and will for my life, I answered it.
I told Him "your will Lord, not mine. All of you and none of me".
I prayed it with all my heart.

The first thing that happened was that my Port-Harcourt "Red Lips" withdrew from me. He left. After a very silly quarrel.
I wasn't worried, God was working.

I didn't graduate from Law School with a first class; I graduated with a pass.
I didn't serve in Lagos; I served in Ekiti State.

I didn't fund my dream of grooming young girls for the Lord from a big salary; it was funded by the Lord Himself.
The dream to groom young girls wasn't just a dream; it is a huge part of what the Lord wants me to do For Him.

My entire world was toppled right on its face from that fateful day in August 2014 – all based on one heart-felt prayer.

Sometimes I look at journals from 2014, read the dreams and smile... I was way out of God's will for my life.

I have new dreams now; new dreams to only follow His will for my life.

It's been more than 2 years since that fateful day in 2014, it hasn't been a walk in the park but it has been one journey I would not exchange for anything else.

My heart has been renewed, my faith has been strengthened in the Lord and I have learnt total reliance in God in ways that I cannot define.
And more importantly, I am on a path where I can boldly say that “the Lord is with me and I am exactly where the Lord wants me to be”.

The society today encourages us to have aspirations, hopes and dreams. Have a goal and draw out a plan for your life, add scriptures to it and the Lord will do it!
That's all well and good for others but if you are a redeemed child of the most High God, then you have got to know that God has a plan for your life.
The One who created you has a will for your life – a will that was drawn up even before you came to be.
It's not your responsibility to draw up that plan for yourself; your responsibility is to surrender to whatever that will may be with the knowledge that it's way better than anything you can come up with and determine to do that will.

Jesus our Master and Lord said in John 4:34:

“My food, said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work.”

He had just one plan and that was to do the will of God as it had been preordained for Him.

Jesus' life purpose was foretold by the Prophets in the scriptures.

“And he came to Nazareth, where he hath been brought up, and he went in, according to his custom, on the sabbath-day, to the synagogue, and stood up to read; and there was given over to him a roll of Isaiah the prophet, and having unfolded the roll, he found the place where it hath been written:
The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, Because He did anoint me; To proclaim good news to the poor, Sent me to heal the broken of heart, To proclaim to captives deliverance, And to blind receiving of sight, To send away the bruised with deliverance, To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.'
And having folded the roll, having given it back to the officer, he sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue were gazing on him.
And he began to say unto them--`To-day hath this writing been fulfilled in your ears;'
-Luke 4:16-19, KJV

Just as our Lord had His purpose foretold in the Word of God, so also are our purposes foretold by God in His word.

We should not live by pulling off dreams from the air but by living forth dreams that the Father has given to us.

Everyone wants to have the best year ever but the only way to have a year that counts is to have a year that's steeped in God's will for your life.

The best prayer to pray in starting a new year is by saying with a surrendered heart and a willing soul, “Lord let your will be done”.

It is my prayer that this eBook leads you to say that prayer with all your heart, following after the will of the only One who counts.

CHAPTER 1
A HEART OF SURRENDER

"Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."

-Matthew 6:10

The above words may appear simple but only the brave can boldly say them with full intent to abide by whatever consequence they may bring... Only the brave or rather, only the surrendered heart that loves the Lord.

Almost every Christian desires to know God's will for their lives but only a little fraction of those numbers are surrendered to following that will.
Of what use would it be for God to tell you His will when He knows that you would not abide by it?

Decision precedes revelation.

In the words of Derek Prince from his book "God's will for your life":

There must come a point in our lives where we make a personal decision. Decision is a key word. We have to decide: "I am going to do God's will." Jesus told us, "If anyone chooses to do God's will, [then] he will find out whether my teaching comes from God."

It is important to understand that we do not find out first and then will to do God's will; we first choose to do, and then we find out. Many people have the order wrong. They pray, "God, show me the whole thing. I want to understand it all first, and then I will decide to do what You tell me." However, that is not how it works. God does not scratch an itching intellect. If you just want to know out of your intellectual curiosity without the willingness to make a commitment, God will not reveal His will to you. But if you will commit to do God's will, then understanding, insight, and revelation will follow.
Let me put it another way: commitment leads to understanding, not understanding to commitment.
You do not first understand God's will and then commit yourself to do it. You commit yourself to do God's will; then, to your committed mind, God begins to unfold His will. All of us come to a point in our lives where we must make a vital decision for ourselves: "My decision is to do God's will." We cannot say "if" or "perhaps." That is not a commitment.

Only a surrendered heart can decide to live forth God's will.
A surrendered heart is one that has died to self – to its own wants, desires and will and lives for only the will of God.

No one gets to this place of surrender over night; series of events lead us here.

Surrender is an act of a will that loves the Lord too much to stray from what He wants.
Jesus had this kind of heart – a heart that wanted nothing but what God wants for it.

"Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.
And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: NEVERTHELESS NOT AS I WILL, BUT AS THOU WILT"

-Matthew 26:38&39, KJV (Emphasis mine)

Jesus knew what lay ahead of Him. He knew that He would be beaten, spat on and separated from God on account of the sins He was to bear for us but then again, He couldn't back out in the face of such suffering. If the Father had willed it to be so then so it would be.

You also would have to come to this point in your life.

You may not know what the year holds...
You may have your own dreams and plans...
But to walk in the will that matters – God's will, you must be willing to say like Jesus, “nevertheless, not as I will but as You will”.

Any other kind of heart lesser than a surrendered heart cannot fulfill the will of God.

You must be wholly committed to seeing His will for your life come to pass and not yours.
When you get to this point, then you are a candidate for

His glory to flow through you.

You may walk through the fire and have to swim through deep waters but those obstacles do not matter to a surrendered heart.
A surrendered heart sees the joy that is set before it and strives to please the Master as he runs on the path of fulfilling of the will of God.

REFLECT AND RESPOND:

- Is your heart surrendered to the Lord?
- Do you love the Lord enough to say "not as I will but as thou will oh Lord?"
- What steps can you take to be more wholly surrendered to the Lord?

PRAY:

- Lord I want to love you more.
- Set my heart on fire for you.
- I desire to be wholly surrendered to you; I lay me down before you.
- Let my desires, will, plans wants... everything in me that doesn't align with your will die. YOU LIVE in me.

CHAPTER 2
I AM HERE TO DO YOUR WILL OH LORD

It is a beautiful thing to have goals; to start the year with liquid fire rushing through your veins. You just have to ensure that those goals are all in line with God's will and purpose for your life.

"This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us."
-1John 5:14

As you get ready to write your goals for the year, make certain to put the Lord first.

Ask:
Lord, what is your will and plan for my life?
What exactly do you want me to do this year?

Please reveal it to me.

Remember what we said in the above chapter?
A surrendered heart precedes revelation.
So you have to first ensure that "you are here to do His will" and then you can go on with asking Him what His will for your life is.

Practices from the world have somehow crept into the Church today.
We have Christians looking unto unbelievers to teach them how to write visions and goals for the year.

But a true and correct vision can only come from God.
The essence of our lives stream from Him.
We draw the reason for anything we do from Him.

So it stands to reason to first go to Him and ask "Lord what is your will, vision, plan for my life this year?"

"I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it."

-Habakkuk 2:1&2

The Lord answered Habakkuk when he set his face to seek the Lord and He will answer us too.
The only snag here is that we have too many Christians who do not want to pay the price to stand upon their watch to hear what He will say.

It may involve some separation from noise, some prayers and some fasting too and the flesh does not want that.
But if we truly want God's will to be done in our lives, then we would quiet the flesh, afflict our bodies if need be and get the Master's plan and not ours. His plans are way better than ours. His way to getting to where He wants to take us better than anything we could ever come up with so submitting to Him is worth it.

Practical steps to do this:
Take out a day, 3 days, a week or as led to just minister to the Lord.

"As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them."
-Acts 13:2, KJV

Surround yourself with His word, separate yourself from the crowd, minister to Him in songs and pray in the Spirit also.

"For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries."
-1 Corinthians 14:2, KJV

As you speak in the Spirit, you are speaking divine mysteries.
Set your year on track by just asking the Spirit to pray out the will of the Father concerning your life.

"Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God."

-Romans 8:26-27, KJV

My Pastor, Nathaniel Bassey would say "if you make a habit of praying in the Spirit, your life will play out the will of God".
Why?
Because the Spirit intercedes for us according to the will of the Father.
You do not know what He is saying but He is aligning your paths to be in line with what the Father desires.

So you may not know what to pray for, you may not know what plans the Lord has for you for the year but the answer isn't in scrolling countless Instagram posts. The answer is in digging into the Spirit.
Go stand upon your watch, ask the Spirit your intercessor to pray for you according to the mind of the Father.

And also notice that the Spirit speaks out divine mysteries. This is what happens as you pray in the Spirit: the mysteries seep into your mind and all of sudden on the inside of you, you know what to do.

The Spirit overrides your physical senses and spills out God's heart concerning you to you.
Remember that Jesus said:

"When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future.
He will bring me glory by telling you whatever he receives from me.
All that belongs to the Father is mine; this is why I said, 'The Spirit will tell you whatever he receives from me.'
-John 16:13-15, NLT

The Holy Spirit will only tell you what He receives from the Lord.
As you pray in the Spirit and quiet your flesh to hear the Lord, He will speak.
When He speaks, write the vision.
That vision aligns with His will for your life.

And when He tells you what His will and vision for your life is, remember that He requires obedience to His will.

You made a decision to be surrendered to His will and the love that led you to make that decision has to lead you to obey.

Following God's will will stretch you, expand your heart and strengthen your faith in Him but worry not, you are in good company.
Paul was stretched, Peter was stretched, Abraham was stretched, even our Lord Jesus was stretched to be able to do God's will.

Doing God's will will require you to walk in faith like you have never known.
The waiting seasons and preparation seasons would drill and prune you.
But there is a reward at the end.

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,

I have kept the faith:

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

-2 Timothy 4:6-8, KJV

The above is the testimony of a man who walked according to God's will for His life.

We once again have to go back to being Christians whose desire is to see their reward on the final day.

Christians who can beat their chests and say "I am here to do your will oh Lord"

REFLECT AND RESPOND:

- Where do you write your yearly goals and visions from?
- Do your visions have their bearings in line with God's plan for your life?
- What can you do to start walking in line with God's will for your life this year?

PRAY:

"For this reason we also, from the day we heard of it, have not ceased to pray and make [special] request for you, [asking] that you may be filled with the full (deep and clear) knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom [in comprehensive insight into the ways and purposes of God] and in understanding and discernment of spiritual things--"

-Colossians 1:9, AMP

- Lord fill me with the knowledge of your will for my life in all spiritual wisdom and understanding.

"Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God."

-Colossians 4:12, KJV

- Lord, help me to stand perfect and complete in your will for my life.
- In my career, marital destiny, academics, finances, where I will live, etc. Let it be your will that reigns and not mine in Jesus name, amen.

P.S: Please pray these prayers fervently, with all your heart.

CHAPTER 3
USE ME AS YOUR HANDS AND FEET

"Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;
Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest."
-Matthew 9:38&39

When Jesus was on earth, He went about doing good – preaching the good news and healing as many as He could get to.

"And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people." (Matthew 9:35)

But even when He was on earth and trying His best to get to everyone He could, He still discovered that He alone could not attend to everyone.
And He asked the disciples to pray for more hands and feet to reap the harvest.

"But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.
Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;
Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest."

-Matthew 9:36-38

Most Christians erroneously believe that we have enough people and enough missionaries doing the work of bringing in the harvest and so we are comfortable in our lukewarm hearts towards the lost.

But what our Lord Jesus said all those years ago is still true today.

Look around you today, how many saved colleagues, friends, family members, etc can you attest for?

And even if those close to you are saved, how many strangers have you met in the past year who are Christians – in word and in actions?

People are lost.

Still lost despite all the Churches and missionaries that exist today.

The harvest is indeed plenteous but the labourers are few.

Go to Schools today and see the number of young boys and girls who are trapped with alcohol and sex as their god.

Some nations are still closed up to the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; with death as the penalty for anyone who dares to proclaim that they are Christians.

Children are still being born into pagan families in remote villages with no hope of anyone telling them the gospel.

Souls are still perishing each day without being saved.

Jesus looked at all these and more and His heart was pained; He had compassion on us.

He said that we were as sheep without a shepherd and His solution was that "we need more labourers to be sent to the harvest".

Some people make the mistake of thinking that the only labourers are those called into the five fold ministry but that view cannot be farther than the truth.

Wherever we are and whatever capacity the Lord has placed us is supposed to be our ministry and place of service for Him (see "10 Steps To Walking In Purpose By Frances for more on this. Download for FREE HERE).

"And His gifts were [varied; He Himself appointed and gave men to us] some to be apostles (special messengers), some prophets (inspired preachers and expounders), some evangelists (preachers of the Gospel, traveling missionaries), some pastors (shepherds of His flock) and teachers.

His intention was the perfecting and the full equipping of the saints (His consecrated people), [that they should do] the work of ministering toward building up Christ's body (the church),"

-Ephesians 4:11&12, AMP

He gave ministry gifts of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers to the Church to equip the saints that THEY SHOULD DO THE WORK OF MINISTERING towards building up Christ's body.

See that?

The saints – you – the layman are to be equipped so you can go do the work of ministering towards building up Christ's body.

YOU ARE A LABOURER.

You are a labourer for Jesus.

Your sphere of ministry is wherever the Lord has placed you – your office, school, gym, family, etc.

God says He needs you to do the work of a labourer right there.

Why aren't you obeying?

Why are you just focusing on your salary?

Won't you have compassion on these lost souls just as Jesus did too?

One way to have a year that counts is to say "Yes Lord, use me as your hands and feet".

Jesus isn't walking the earth as a man anymore. Now He has us – His sons and daughters as His co-partners in the work of ministry.

We have been given the ministry of reconciliation.

"All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.

We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God."

2Corinthians 5:18-20, NIV

REFLECT AND RESPOND:

- Have you been a worthy ambassador for the Lord?
- Where has the Lord placed you as an ambassador for Him?
- Have you been imploring others to be a worthy ambassador for the Lord?

PRAY:

- Lord I want to be your hands and feet. I want to walk this earth for you, doing what you would have done if you were here.
- Give me your heart for the lost.
- Give me a heart of compassion for the harvest.
- Give me boldness to speak for you.
- Let your pain at souls that perish be my pain.
- Lay the burden for the lost on me; let me be a labourer in the harvest for you this year.
- Use me Lord; frail and shy me, use me as your hands and feet this year.

DECIDE:

- I rededicate myself to you Lord. I commit to do your will oh Lord.
- This year, I give up my own will, desires and plans.
- Take my hands, take my feet, take my heart, lead me in the direction you want me to go. In your own way Lord, your own way.

Signed,

Your Son/Daughter,
Me.

CHAPTER 4
THE ONE THING YOU SHOULD PURSUE

"One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple."
-Psalm 27:4

We usually have different ways of measuring whether we have had a successful year or not.
-More money.
-Better jobs.
-Marriage.
-Greater business success...

And when it seems like we have fallen short of these measurements, we automatically believe that we are failures.
But have you ever stopped to wonder whether those measurements are God's own kind of measurements too?

David also set a goal for his life. He set an aim that He wanted to achieve and that aim was ONE THING.
There was only one thing he wanted to seek after and that was to seek the Lord and remain in His presence all the days of his life.
If he failed in this regard, then and only then would he have considered his life empty.

Now, did pursuing ONE THING mean that David ended up as a poor Church rat?
A million times no. God uplifted David from being a mere shepherd boy to being a king. He was abundantly supplied and had material resources at his beck and call.
But David himself never sought those things. God added them to him as he pursued God.

Sometimes we have our priorities skewed up. We pursue things when we should pursue God and He in turn would make things pursue us.

How many of us can heartily say "ONE THING DO I DESIRE IN THIS NEW YEAR... AND THAT IS TO SEEK AFTER THE LORD WITH EVERYTHING IN ME"?

I do not think that I can say that with all of my heart but I desire to get to the point where I can say that so boldly. That one thing do I desire Lord, and that is to pursue after you, with the full knowledge that everything else comes after you and even if they do not come, you are enough.

It all begins with a desire.

What is your desire for the new year? Is it one thing or a lot of things? Even if you desire a lot of things, are they following the order of the right priority?
Is God first in the list of things that you desire?
Do you even desire to desire Him first? As your one thing?

I know that the world would come at you with full force, trying to get you to see things the way they see things but would you look away from the world to see things the way God sees things?

"But seek (aim at and strive after) FIRST OF ALL His kingdom and His righteousness (His way of doing and being right), and then all these things taken together will be given you besides."
-Matthew 6:33

God isn't a wicked Father; He won't let you seek Him and then let you end in shame.
He provides, protects and watches over all who belong to Him. But your heart has to be right before Him. Your scale of preference has to start with Him before anything and everyone else.

REFLECT AND RESPOND:
- Is your heart right before the Lord?
- Do you desire the Lord as your one chief desire?
- What can you do to change this in the new year?

PRAY:
Know this as you pray:
"For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." -Philippians 2:13

He gives the desire and will to please Him and burrow deeper into Him.

So ask:

• Lord as a deer pants after water so do I want to pant after you in this new year.
• Come into my heart Lord, come take first place, last place and every other place.
• Increase my desire for you; fill my thoughts, my heart with the knowledge of you.
• I want to seek you as my ONE THING. Help me Lord

CONCLUSION

One of the “hottest” topics right now is the topic of “purpose”.

It is true that God created us with a purpose to fulfill in Him but we must be careful not to place the pursuit of work above our walk with God.

Everything we do and will ever do stems out of a vibrant relationship with God and a commitment to do that which He says.

Every purpose has to have it's foundation in Christ Jesus.

I was tempted to add a chapter on goal setting in this eBook but it didn't quite fit in.

If you get your pursuit of God right, your purpose in Him will follow suit.

The most important thing to get right in a year is the pursuit of God and His will for your life.

So we can simply sum up your purpose for this year and beyond in one simple equation.

My Purpose = To Do God's Will.

As long as you stick with the equation above, you will be fine.
As you stick to Him and spend time asking about what He will have you do, He will make plain to you the paths you are to tread in Him.

Someone else cannot tell you what goals to set; dig into God and get His goals and plan for your life.
That's the most sure way to succeed in a new year.
That's the way to have a year that counts.

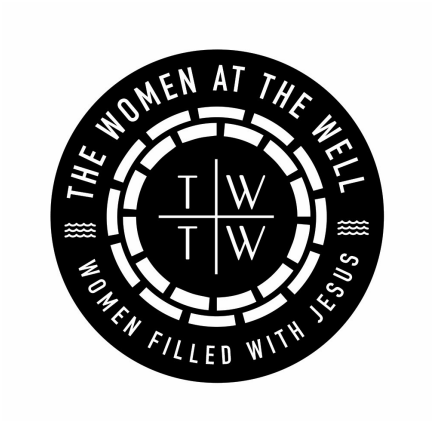
Have an amazing year walking hand in hand with the God who directs your paths.

WORD FOR THE YEAR

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding.
Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take."

-Proverbs 3:5&6

ABOUT THE WOMEN AT THE WELL (TWTW)



The Women At The Well is a Christian ladies ministry committed to raising women filled with Jesus, based on John 4.

We are very much like the Samaritan woman at the well; women who understand that only Jesus can fill us up.

We hold live meets every quarter of the year and have a very active online group where Bible studies, prayers and general encouragement are shared to all members daily.

We are based in Nigeria.
